

Eric D. Mason is a Partner at the Firm. He has extensive experience representing corporate and individual clients in a broad range of complex commercial and insurance coverage litigation matters in state and federal trial and appellate courts across the country. Mr. Mason also represents policyholders in complex insurance recovery disputes, including those involving business tort, intellectual property, and employment related claims.

Mr. Mason began his legal career at the Los Angeles office of Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP, where he represented Fortune 500 companies including national banks, media companies, aerospace manufacturers, and consumer product retailers in high-profile consumer class actions, intellectual property litigation, environmental litigation, and Foreign Corrupt Practices Act investigations, among other matters. He has also represented individual business owners in partnership, corporate ownership, and licensing disputes, and has experience with international discovery issues.

Among his notable representations, Mr. Gonzalez was part of a team that represented Southern California Edison Company in connection with the energy crisis in California, including regulatory proceedings, federal litigation against the California Public Utilities Commission, and defense of several private actions seeking payment.

Additionally, he has been recognized as a "Rising Star" by Southern California Super Lawyers for the years 2015 to 2018 and a Super Lawyer for 2025 and 2026.

He graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles, School of Law, Order of the Coif, and received his B.A. from the University of California, San Diego, magna cum laude. After law school, Mr. Mason served as a judicial clerk for U.S. District Judge Valerie Baker Fairbank of the Central District of California. During law school, he served as Senior Editor of the UCLA Law Review, was a distinguished advocate and board member of the Moot Court Honors Program and served as a law clerk at the Orange County District Attorney's Office.
