
BLANCA P. CHAVEZ

As an associate, Ms. Chavez manages high-volume litigation dockets, with experience in catastrophic personal injury, employment litigation, mass torts, commercial business disputes, and insurance coverage matters.

A proud first-generation college graduate, Ms. Chavez is committed to mentorship, community involvement, and expanding access to the legal profession. She was selected to serve on the Board of the Latina Lawyer Bar Association for the upcoming 2027–2029 term, strengthening her dedication to advancing Latina attorneys within the legal space. She also coached her alma mater's Latino Law Student Association Moot Court Team in both 2024 and 2025.

Ms. Chavez earned her Bachelor of Arts in Sociology with a minor in Gender Studies from the University of California, Los Angeles, and her law degree from Southwestern Law School. During law school, she participated in the Moot Court Honors Program as an oralist, served as a staff member of the Southwestern Law Review, and worked as a senior writing fellow. She also externed for the Honorable Dean D. Pregerson of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California and interned with the City of Los Angeles Fire Department's Professional Standards Division.

Ms. Chavez was named to the Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch list in 2024, 2025, and 2027. Outside of the office, she enjoys taking Pilates classes, finding the best coffee/matcha spots, and adding to her ever-growing collection of purses.
