
JULIA G. CHAMALE

Julia G. Chamale earned her J.D. from the University of La Verne College of Law and obtained her Bachelor of Arts in Criminology and Justice Studies from California State University San Marcos.

Ms. Chamale focuses her practice on personal injury cases and insurance coverage disputes. As an associate Ms. Chamale guides clients through all stages of litigation, including pre-litigation, mediations, and jury trials.

Prior to practicing civil litigation, Julia served as a Deputy District Attorney at the Fresno District Attorney's Office, where she prosecuted a high volume of misdemeanor cases and conducted numerous jury trials. During law school, Ms. Chamale clerked for the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office, working on cases involving sexual abuse and domestic violence. This experience fostered her commitment to advocating for survivors and seeking justice on their behalf.
